- Antoni Sliwinski had acted as Polish Consul in Curitiba for only a short time (1) when he returned to Rio, leaving the Consulate temporarily in charge of a stemographer, Margarida Krol. The latter is the daughter of a prominent Polish family in Curitiba and is not believed to be a Communist.
- 2. Sliwinski returned to Curi iba on 27-28 February and closed the Polish Consulate, dismissing the two local employees who had stayed on after the defection of Consul General Alexander Bodak. A sign was placed on the door stating that the Consulate had been closed and that all correspondence should be sent to the Legation in Rio.
- 3. Emilia Neumann, former Acting Polish Commercial Attache in Rio de Janeiro, in reported to have been recalled to Poland. She has recently been setting as secretary and assistant to the present Commercial Attache, Micczyslaw Jakobsind, (2) who has for a number of years been one of the leading Polish Communists in Rio.
